

The airways and free press belong to the public. I want rules to protect them and am dismayed that the FTC is considering otherwise.